

PAOLO DAL FERRO

Chief Corporate Officer

Paolo Dal Ferro is Chief Corporate Officer at Golden Goose, reporting directly to the CEO, Silvio Campara. He oversees the Company's corporate functions at global level, including Finance, Legal, and IT, with the aim of structuring processes and increasing corporate staff in line with the Company's consistent business growth.

Before his appointment as Chief Corporate Officer in 2021, Paolo had served as Golden Goose's Chief Financial Officer since 2018, after joining the Company that same year as Head of Planning and Control. Prior to that, he held positions of increasing responsibility at several companies in the fields of investor relations and management control.

Born in 1974, Paolo graduated with a degree in Business Economics from the Ca' Foscari University of Venice (Italy).
